Feeding a hungry child is an act of compassion
– not a political statement.

Providing safe places for young people to learn and grow helps build community – not division.

Easing refugees' suffering, caused by war and poverty, should inspire our shared responsibility – not controversy.

Giving disadvantaged families access to reliable livelihoods creates peace – not conflict.

Ensuring that our most vulnerable communities have access to clean water is a right
– not a privilege.

As a human being,
standing up for those who need help
is not a difficult decision.
